OPENING OF GRACE CHURCH FESTIVAL .-The festival for the benefit of Grace (Episcopal Church was opened in Armory Hall last night, and will be continued until Wed-nesday night. The hall has been handomely decrorated with evergreens, flags, and beautiful bowers. On each side of the hall are arranged wonderfully pretty and eazy evergreen bowers, where the visitor is served by interesting and accomodating usual quietness, young ladies with anything called for in the line of refreshments at moderate figures. The centre of the hall is adorned with a floral arbor, filled with choice flowers, arranged due here at 6:50 o'clock last night, did not charge. The stage has also been neatly and magnificent scene is presented, and what is | was removed, better no one is disturbed in his contemplation of the beautiful display by requests for chances in this or that article. Nothing but what is voluntarily ordered is furnished; no one is importuned, or even requested to make a purchase. The bowers, arbor, tables, &c., are presided over as follows:

Red Rose Bower - Mrs. India Henderson, assisted by the Misses Lucy and Sailie Wooden and Miss Ida Moore,

White Rose Bower - Mrs. A. N. Hurdle, assisted by the Misses L. and M. Corsa, Miss Mollie Thornton, the Misses Sallie and An-nie Shirley, Miss Effic Franks, Miss Lillie King and Miss Jennie Stoutenburg. Asthetic Bower-Mrs. Blanch Berkley, as sisted by the Misses Kate and Flora Dorsey, Miss Clara Padgett and Miss Belle Coleman. Bower of Roses - Miss Lillie Phillips, assisted by Miss Annie O'Neal, Miss Essie Stoutenburg and Miss Lizzie Entwisle. Floral Bower - Mrs. Wm. D. Wood, assisted by Miss Lizzie Hadson and Miss Willie Confectionery Table Mrs. Julian F. Young, assisted by Mrs. Decton and Mrs.

Rebekah's Well, from which is served ice-cold lemonade, s presided over by two pretty misses in picturesque costumes-Ettic Kohr and Frankie Smith.

Mr. Will Entwisle has charge of the soda water fountain.

At nine o'clock the Alexandria Light Infantry, under command of Capt. McBurney, arrived and were received by James S. Douglas, esq., President of the Common Council. in a short speech of welcome, which was appropriately responded to by Capt. McBurney. During the evening some fine vocal and instrumental music was rendered, among those taking part being Miss Fulmer, Miss Hudson, Miss Kate Dorsey, Miss Stoutenburg, Messis Aitcheson, Prof. Kohr, of Washingon, and a number of the members of the late Alexandria Musical Association, At deven o'clock the festival closed for the evening. To night there will be music by the different choirs of the city.

THE ALEXANDRIA CANAL CASE, Mr. Bailey of the United States Treasury Department, called on Mayor Beekham this morning and made a formal demand for the surrender and delivery to him, as the authorized agent of the United States, of all the stock owned and held by the city in the the trade. Alexandria Canal Company. The Mayor, in esponse to the demand stated that not feel authorized to take any steps in the matter without advice, and before giving answer he would call a conference on the subject. At eleven o'clock J. B. Smoot, Isaac Eichberg, Henry Strauss and W. W. Herbert, of the Finance Committee; K. Kemper, Corporation Attorney; John M. Johnson, counsel for the Corporation in the canal suit; F. L. Brockett, auditor; B. Wheat president, and L. E. Uhler, clerk of the Alexandria Canal Company assembled at the Mayor's office, at the call of Mayor Beckham, who was also present, for the purpose of considering the demand of the United States, made through Mr. Bailey. Mr. Bailey was also in attendance, and presented the demand for the canal stock to the conference in writing. After consultation the mayor politely informed Mr. Company.

In the suit of the United State against the Alexandria Canal Company, the counsel for the city, when the case was last up before Judge Hughes, filed an answer to the bill of complaint stating that the United States had never made application for the surrender of the canal stock held by the city, and it is thought the demand has been made to meet that objection. The United States which already holds a certificate of $150,000 of the stock, alleges that the city still holds canal stock to the amount of $550,000. The case will come up on its merits before Judge Hughes at the July term of the United States District Court.

THE REVENUE LAW .- The wording of the 28th section of chapter 119 of the Acts of Assembly of 1881-2, relating to the tax on merchants, is so ambiguous as to make it impossible to tell what is meant. The tax sgraduated by the amount of purchases. The section reads as follows:

If the amount of purchases shall not exceed one housand dollars, the tax shall be five dollars; where antiques do not exceed two thousand dollars, the tax shall be true dollars; the tax shall be true to dollars; and for all purchases over two housand dollars and less than fifty thousand dollars, and upon all purchases over fifty thousand dollars, and upon all purchases over fifty thousand dollars, here shall be paid a tax of ten cents on every hundred adiats in excess of fifty thousand dollars. The tax imseed under and by virtue of this section, shall be in lead of all tax for state purposes, on the capital actually made over the state purposes, on the capital actually made over the state purposes.

Now suppose a merchant's purchases amount to the sum of $30,000, or to any sum ver $2,000 and under $50,000, can any one tell what the tax will be? Or suppose a merchants' purchases amount to the sum of 860,000, or to any sum over $50,000, can any tell what the tax will be? If the act, ore than $50,000 has to pay ten dollars and cents on every $100 in excess of $50,000. ie old law was that a merchant who purased more than $2,000 and under $50,000 id $10 on the $2,000 and 40 cents on every o in excess of the $2,000 up to $50,000; that part of the old law is omitted in the waet as published. The Commissioner of Revenue may assess merchants 40 cents every $100 in excess of $2,000 and up to (a) (a) but there is no law for it, and, of surse, the same will be resisted in the hithe language of the enrolled bill as it appears in the published acts, then chants who purchase over $2,000 and than $50,000 and more than $50,000 are the criticism of the act to say that the crisiature has made a mistake. That canbe presumed and is inadmissable. A DANGEROUS WOMAN.—Priscilla Vass, DANGEROUS WOMAN.—Priscilla Vass, olorious colored woman, who was fined Lard for sale at J. C. and neck with a large knife. The Vass woman, when arrested, gave as a reason for the assault that the Blackburn woman had won the affections of her beau, Sandy Mason. This morning the Mayor sent the assailant, who is a dangerous woman, on to the grand jury of the Corporation Court to answer for assault with intent to kill.

STURGEON.—Large numbers of sturgeon are now being caught nightly in the river off this city. This morning the wharf at Fish- Are now receiving the latest additions to their town was covered with fine specimens of these large fish. Joseph Horseman succeeded in capturing, during Sunday night, six-teen large storgeon which met with a ready sale yesterday at 75c to $1 apiece. Very few other fish are arriving at the wharf The shad and herring season is now regarded as over. All the agents have left Fishtown, and the place is settling down to its

in a manner that reflects credit upon the judgment and good taste of the ladies in having been delayed by an accident to a freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio tastefully arranged for the musicians and characteristic and the state of the state of the line blockaded by the damaged C. & O. train evening. On entering the hall a really the V. M. train had to wait until the wreck

Potter News.-There were before the Mayor this morning Priscilla Vass, for a murderous assault on Lue Blackburn, and Edward Lloyd and Cot. Ward, for disorderly conduct. All the parties were colored. The Vass woman was sent on to the grand jury of the Corporation Court, and Lloyd and Ward were locked up for the non-payment of the fines of $5 each.

READ THIS—A FINAL NOTICE.

The time allowed for the collection of City Taxes for the year 1881, is limited to the 31st day of May, 1882. Such bills as are then in the hands of the Collectors unpaid will have to be set-tled for by those charged with their collection. During the past three (3) years the law against the Collectors has been rigidly enforced, and they have been made to pay a large number of bills. Those who have not as yet paid their taxes for this year have been called upon from time to time and urged to do so. The request is once more made, and it is hoped they will come foward at once and settle, as there can be no escape for any one, and further indulgence will not be granted. No further notice will be given.
